NAME OF TRUST AND STATE OF OPERATION:

.....Stamp Duty State/Territory: .....

EFFORTS MADE TO LOCATE THE LOST TRUST DEED:

Usually copies of lost deeds may be found in files held by accountants, lawyers or banks. It is always better to have a copy of the deed than to try to confirm the terms of a lost one. We need to ensure that you have asked all relevant people for a copy of the deed, so the answer to each of the following questions needs to be Yes.

- You have contacted all prior solicitors/accountants that have acted on behalf of the client and may have come into contact with the Trust Deed
- You have contacted the current accountants that handles the tax returns for the Trust
- You have reviewed the tax returns for the Trust and the Unit Holders to determine who are the Unit Holders
- You have attempted to locate all minutes of the Trustees
- You are not aware of any updates or variations to the Trust
- You or the client did not have any other Trusts established at the same time (if they did, we could assume that the standard terms were similar)
- You have contacted the bank(s) at which the Trust has an account and they do not hold a copy of the trust deed
- You have been unable to locate a copy of the stamp duty assessment or indeed a cheque butt for the duty that was paid

If you have a copy of a deed for a Trust that was established at the same time as the lost Trust Deed, please include a copy with this order for the Deed of Confirmation) Yes / No
